NOTES

An employer who contravenes, or fails to comply with any of the requirements of Section 299 of the Income Tax Act 1959 is guilty of an offence.

A remittance accompanied by this form completed and signed by the Group Employer or a person authorised by him/her must be forwarded to the Commissioner General Internal Revenue each month. If no deductions have been made the form should be endorsed "NIL" and forwarded to the Commissioner General Internal Revenue. Deductions made during each calendar month should be remitted to the Commissioner General Internal Revenue not later than 7 days after the end of that month.

Late Payment - Where an amount (in this subsection referred to as the "principal amount") payable to the Commissioner General by a group employer under this section remains unpaid after the expiration of the period within which it is required to be paid-

- (a) the principal amount continues to be payable by the group employer to the Commissioner General; and
 (b) the group employer is liable to pay to the Commissioner General additional tax by way of penalty being-
- (i) an amount (in this subparagraph referred to as the "relevant penalty amount") equal to 20% of the principal amount; and
 - (ii) an amount at the rate of 20% per annum of the sum of so much of the principal amount as remains unpaid and so much of the relevant penalty amount as remains unpaid, computed from the expiration of that period.

The Commissioner General may, in any case, for reasons she/he thinks sufficient, remit any additional tax payable under the provisions of this section.

EXAMPLE

The following example may assist you with the completion of this form.

XYZ Enterprises has 10 staff.

7 of these staff earn 390 kina per fortnight. The 3 managers earn 900 kina per fortnight.

All 10 staff have 3 or more dependents and have completed their declarations. As a result, the 7 staff earning 390 kina have no Salary & Wages Tax (SWT) deducted from their salaries. However, the 3 managers earning 900 Kina per fortnight have 87.61 kina of SWT deducted from their fortnightly pay (calculated using the Salary and Wages Tax Rate Table provided by the IRC).
